POLICY

- Students defending a thesis must be physically present on campus for the defense. The advisor must also be physically present, together with the student, at the defense. Either the faculty reader or the Honors Coordinator can zoom or telephone into the thesis defense. Having a committee member (reader or Honors Coordinator) not in attendance should be rare and must be approved in advance by all members of the thesis committee and the Honors Program office. Appropriate facilities should be used for the teleconference to assure quality interaction – not just a laptop screen.
